Interfaith Vigil for Peace and Tolerance on Thursday, March 21

On Thursday, March 21 at 7PM, an Interfaith Vigil for Peace and Tolerance will be held at Artesia Park, 18750 Clarkdale Avenue, Artesia. In light of several recent tragedies that have targeted people of many faiths around the world, the vigil will provide an opportunity for the community to come together to reflect, honor victims, and celebrate tolerance.

Candles will be available at the ceremony for all attendees. The vigil will take place at the Veterans' Memorial in front of the Albert O. Little Community Center, Artesia Park.
