FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City of Artesia Seeking Vendors for International Street Fair and Diversity Festival

The City of Artesia will hold its 8th Annual International Street Fair and Diversity Festival on Saturday, October 2nd, from 3PM to 10PM. The event is free to the public and held in downtown Artesia, located on Pioneer Boulevard between 183rd Street and 188th Street.

The Festival is one of Artesia's most popular events and features live cultural performances and musical entertainment, a kids' zone, carnival rides, a variety of international cuisine, and other fun activities. A parade celebrating diversity will kick-off the festivities at 2:30PM and will include participation from community groups.

The City of Artesia is seeking the participation of vendors for the International Street Fair and Diversity Festival. Food vendors and vendors who provide fun and artisan-type products, such as hand-crafted items, are encouraged to visit the City's website at tinyurl.com/ArtesiaStreetFair for details and application forms. An application is required and there is a fee to participate as a vendor. The deadline to apply as a food vendor is Friday, August 27th. The deadline to apply as a vendor is September 1st. More information is also available by calling Artesia City Hall at 562-865-6262 or Artesia Park at 562-860-3361.
